PARENTING THE LOVE AND LOGIC WAY®
A Six-Session Parent Skill Building Program designed by the Love and Logic Institute®

Parenting the Love and Logic Way® is a skills building workshop designed to give simple and practical techniques and tips to help parents with kids of all ages and abilities. This parent education is available for all parents, family members, and guardians.

When you attend this workshop, you will learn how to:
- Raise responsible kids
- Put an end to arguing, back talk, and begging
- Avoid power struggles
- Preserve loving relationships with your children
- Teach responsibility and how to make good decisions without losing their love
- Guide your children to solve their own problems
- Set enforceable limits
- Have more fun with your kids!
